Current Talk in View of the Co Now that the fall elections in this State are a thing of the past, the biennial city election, which occurs the latter part of next January, begins to attract a good deal of attention on the part of the public. Owing to the changes nately it was discovered in time to preven made in the city charter by the last Legisla-ture, there are two less officials to be elected time named, Mr. Reymann and his wife at this election than beretore. at this election than beretofore. The officers to be chosen are a Mayor, City Sergeant, City Clerk and Wharf Master. The Street Chomolisationer and Superintendent of Water Works will be elected by the Board of Public Works and Water Board, respectively, after the expiration of the terms of office of the present incumbents, who were elected by the people before the amendment of the charter, Members of both of the branches of Council will also be ichosen from each ward, as usual. Some interest is already manifest in one office, that of City Sergeant. Prior to this time two years ago candidates in one office, that of City Sergeant. Prior to this time two years ago candidates for this position had already announced themselvee, and by the end of Cotober the prefinitionary campaign was waxing warm. The reason for the present different state of affairs is not easily seen. So far only one candidate for the Respublican nomination has been maned, because the state of affairs is not easily seen. So far only one candidate for the Respublican nomination has been maned, because the window was found open and hanging ont of the council will also be a candidate for the Respublican have mentioned his name. partially and with conspictions success, he will no doubt be a leading candidate, to say the least.

For the Democratic nomination there are at least three applicants, Messra. Porter Smith, John White and W. H. Shaffer.

So tay no candidates for the mayorally have been mentioned. Mayor Egerter is said to be willing to make the run sgain.

For City Clerk we have heard no name mentioned so far but that of Frank Bowers, the present clerk. His claims to a renomination at the hands of the Republicans are his faithful discharge of his duties and his evident competence for the position.

The Independent Labor party contemplates putting a full teket in the field, and the situation may shortly grow more complicated.
